

I get my professional satisfaction from the children; I stay in my room, give hugs, break the occasional arm on the playground and never raise my voice. I dream about counting to 5 while they have a drink.

I don't have time to go to the staff room, I send a parent volunteer for my mail.
I'm an Elementary Teacher!