

I would spend my whole life in the staff room talking about the young offenders act, the trouble with parents today, why I need meds, sex ed, why everyone doesn't teach math, merit pay, IPP's, teaching in another country, and who is the principal this year? . . . But sorry, the bell has rung and I have to teach Junior High!